How can I come to Amstetten ???

You can reach Amstetten by train or by car: If you use the train, it's very simple, because every second express-train stops in Amstetten, just ask at your local train-station, maybe you have to change trains in Linz or St.Poelten. If you come by car, drive along the Westautobahn, and stop at 'Amstetten West', then it's simple to find the partyplace with the map. Hope you have no problems to find us, cu soon.....
